

The Bay's Future Fund (BFF) is a $500 million loan fund that serves five counties in the Bay Area: San Francisco, Alameda, Contra Costa, San Mateo, and Santa Clara.

BFF invests in affordable housing serving a range of incomes, from extremely low income individuals and families to much needed workforce housing – ranging from 0–120% Area Median Income (AMI). A variety of loan structures, from pre-development through mini-permanent financing, are eligible. Underwriting can be flexible to help create a structure that best fits project needs.

The Bay's Future Fund is part of the Partnership for the Bay's Future Family of Loan Funds that supports the production and preservation of affordable homes. The Partnership for the Bay's Future is a groundbreaking collaboration committed to supporting a vibrant, inclusive and dynamic Bay Area where people of all incomes can thrive in resilient communities.
